Press Release
December 28, 2009

The Bristol County District Attorney's Office and Fall River Police are currently investigating the homicide of an unidentified man in Fall River.

Police began the investigation Sunday afternoon around 2 p.m. after being notified about individuals allegedly carrying a body wrapped in a carpet out of an apartment building at 68 Aetna St., Fall River.

The ensuing investigation has resulted in the arrest of Angel Garcia, 27, and Neidy Mendez, 31, both of 68 Aetna St., 3rd Floor. Mr. Garcia and Ms. Mendez are both charged with Accessory to Murder After the Fact.

The homicide victim has yet to be positively identified. He is believed to be in his late 20s or early 30s.

As the homicide investigation remains active and ongoing, no further information regarding specific facts of the case will be released at this time.

Both defendants will be arraigned this morning in Fall River District Court, 289 Rock St. The arraignments will be handled by Assistant District Attorney Katie Rayburn, who has been coordinating the investigation on behalf of District Attorney Sam Sutter's Office.
